

WHY GET TRAINED IN THIS PROGRAM?

Would you like to help parents in your church and in your community using biblically based and professionally developed materials and resources? Would you like to learn great parenting skills for yourself? Would you like to be able to help older disciples who feel stuck spiritually? Would you like to become a facilitator of the "Good Enough Parenting" workshop which has the potential to help your church members as well as have an impact on your friends?

Then join our Parenting Facilitators' Training in Geneva from March 14-17, or in Wichita from March 27-30, or in San Diego from April 5-8, 2014.

Parenting Facilitators' Training

A Bible-Based Professional Parenting Program Utilizing Principles of Schema Therapy

March 14-17, 2014 in Geneva, Switzerland | March 27-30, 2014 in Wichita, USA | April 5-8, 2014 in San Diego, USA

HOW IT CAME ABOUT...

For the past thirteen years, the Louis and their staff have been trained in many aspects of counseling and communication, and have been integrating their skills into a unique toolbox of both biblical and therapeutic expertise. In order to meet the needs of their congregation in Singapore, John and Karen put together several workshops for marriage and family, which have profoundly helped their ministries in Asia. The "I Choose Us!" (ICU) marriage program and "Good Enough Parenting" (GEP) parenting program were originally conceived as strengthening programs for their members, but have now evolved into also being evangelistic in nature. As others have heard about the success of these workshops, the Louis have received numerous requests to equip other leaders in the ICOC to be able to replicate these programs.

ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

Married for over 25 years with two adult children, John and Karen Louis have been in the full-time ministry with the International Churches of Christ since 1985. They both hold a Masters in Counselling from Monash University of Melbourne, Australia, and are members of professional counselling associations in America, Australia and Singapore. As founders of Movie Therapy in Singapore, John and Karen incorporate the use of multi-media in workshops for ICOC churches as well as for secular organizations and companies in Singapore.

John is a certified Schema Therapist and member of the International Society for Schema Therapy (ISST), having been trained by Dr. Jeffrey Young, the founder of Schema Therapy, and Karen is a certified Solution-Focused Therapist.

“GOOD ENOUGH PARENTING”

Research has shown that when core emotional needs are not met during the formative years of a child, "Lifetraps" (schemas) will develop. These core emotional needs are:

- Connection & Acceptance
  - Healthy Autonomy & Performance
  - Reasonable Limits
  - Realistic Expectations
- And the “plus-one” need of
- Spiritual Values & Community

While no one's parenting can ever be perfect, "Good Enough Parenting" offers a step-by-step guide on how parents can learn to meet these core needs, and provide parenting that is "good-enough" to prevent Lifetraps from developing in their children. "Good Enough Parenting", a series of nine Christian parenting workshops, was developed by John and Karen Louis and is based on Schema Therapy founded by Dr. Jeffrey Young.

HOW TO SIGN UP

If you or anyone from your congregation would like to learn how to deliver this program, John and Karen will be conducting training in Geneva from March 14-17, 2014, in Wichita from March 27-30, 2014, and in San Diego from April 5-8, 2014. "In a world of too much information, 'Good Enough Parenting' uses movies to teach parents how to MEET CORE NEEDS, and, at the same time, how to avoid passing down their own dysfunctional behaviors. Schema Therapy has been successful with adults, but I have always wanted to see someone do something on preventing schemas, or Lifetraps, in children, and here it is!"
